

1st Grade News

August 28, 2020

WE had a Super week here at HTLS! 1st graders are doing so well adjusting to our new procedures and routines!! We are so Happy to be back at school! We will have Spelling words and a Bible verse next week!

Be still and know that I am God.

46:10

Please try to practice this at home and talk about its meaning!! We will recite it aloud on Friday!

What we are studying in our classroom:

Reading/Writing/Spelling:

We will be learning the short A sound and talking about characters and setting.

Math:

We will practice writing numbers 1-20 correctly.

Religion: Daily, we continue to learn about Jesus our Savior! Next week we will read about Abaham and Sarah, The Birth of Moses and how God blesses us each day!!

Social Studies: WE are learning about rules and responsibilities. Please talk about these skills at home!

Reminders:

Mum orders are due September 7th, to help support our school!

Spelling homework will come home Monday and will be due FRIDAY!!

WE will have our first Spelling Test on FRIDAY

We will recite our Bible verse out loud on FRIDAY as well!

Have a Super weekend!

Blessings, Mrs. Mitchell
